DEER PARK WINES

Deer Park Wines is a family run business with vineyards nestled in the slope of the iconic Bredon Hill, steeped in history. With the first vine planted in 2016, the vines that exclusively supply our wines, are now totalling over 6000, split across three plots. The success of our wines can be seen both nationally and internationally as they have regularly been recognised in wine awards such as Wine GB, International Wine Challenge and most recently the Decanter awards where all of those entered achieved Bronze awards.

Deer Park Bacchus 27.00
Subtle aromas of elderflower and freshly zested lime mixed with early summer blossom. Elegant acidity, with a finish that leaves you wanting more.
 Decanter World Wine Awards - Bronze Medal 2022*

Deer Park Special Reserve 27.00
Fine acidity mixed with tropical fruits. The citrus flavours partner notes of pineapple and toasty aromatics with an appealing depth of complexity which continues to deliver.
 Decanter World Wine Awrds - Bronze Medal 2022*

Deer Park Rosé 27.00
Hints of red fruit and green strawberry, finely balanced fruit and acidity on the palate lead into a satisfying finish.

Classic Cuvée 42.00
A delicious English sparkling wine made in the traditional method. Beautifully crafted with notes of toast and fresh exotic fruits on the nose, a fine mousse which dances on the palate and a lasting finish with hints of toasted brioche.
 International Wine Challenge - Bronze Award*

Deer Park Sparkling Rosé 42.00
Aromas of enticing red fruits, mown grass and hints of laurel and thyme greet the nose. The palate is lively and delivers on the aromas promises. An easy drinking wine with mineral notes, a fine mousse and a medium finish, very moreish.
 Decanter World Wine Awrds - Bronze Medal 2022*

 Vintage subject to availability.*

125ml measures are available on request for our wines served by the glass.
